OUTAOUAIS

Newsletter - June 2021

Dear Members

The Outaouais Branch of the National Association of Federal Retirees has put together three interesting videoconference information sessions during the months of June and July: the new philanthropic culture, hearing health, and what you need to know about wills in Quebec. You will need to sign up for the sessions, but registration is free.

In addition, you are invited by our colleagues from the Quebec Branch to attend a videoconference in fishing in Quebec.
